Please rate the following statements for their accuracy, on a scale of 1 to 10

A 1 means that the statement is exactly how I feel, or I feel really strongly about it

A 10 means that it's NOT TRUE, or I feel just the opposite

A 5 means that I don't really care one way or the other, or it's not important to me.

My primary reason for looking for a partner is to prevent paying a much higher single price.
I'm looking for a traveling companion for this trip only.
I'm looking for a possible companion to share this and possibly future trips with.
I'm looking for a permanent friend in general, not only during trips.
I'm independent; if I'm ready to go, I'll go whether my roommate is ready or not.
I want to share each day's and/or night's experiences with my roommate.
I snore loudly (at least I've been told).
It would bother me if my roommate snored even a little.
It would bother me if my roommate watched TV early or late and kept me awake.
If I came in late at night I would be extremely careful not to wake my roommate.
If a roommate came in late at night, it would bother me if he/she made noise/woke me.
I'm a bathroom hog.
I'm an early riser.
I go to bed late.
I'm very extroverted in public.
I'm very extroverted in private (I'll talk your ear off).
It would bother me if my roommate talked incessantly and wouldn't leave me alone.
I'm adventuresome, and want to do almost everything I possibly can on the trip.
I have enough money to do almost anything I'd like to on the trip.
I'm only interested in what's included in the trip, not interested in optional excursions.
I'm a party animal, ready for almost anything.
I need my own quiet, private time.
I need more time than most people to relax and rest.
I want to do some things with my roommate, but don't want to be joined at the hip.
There may be times when I prefer to just go off on my own, and I don't want my roommate to be offended or wonder if he/she did something wrong.
I want lots of exercise.
I get tired easily, and can't do a lot of strenuous things.
I'm a private person, and ask my roommate to be very respectful of my privacy.
If my roommate hurt my feelings/bothered me, I could easily confront him/her about it.
